You will need to provide the Judge's name, the hearing date and time, and the case number. Once you have provided this information, you will be faxed or emailed (whatever you requested) the confirmation number and participant code for the hearing.

For this case and this case only, the Court will allow participants to register as late as the hearing start time. However, Court Call has requested that you register and schedule your appearance no later than 4:00 p.m. Pacific Standard time the day prior to allow them time to process your request and reduce any delays in your ability to access the hearing.
